

My Klove radio station keeps me informed on all upcoming christian events wich generates thousands of dollars into our comunity and world wide charities.

There is so much need for a station of this type. It provides more positive and encouraging words to not just older groups but to our young kids who don't have a clue about the world there going to grow up in(wich is scary) . Please don't let this get away from us. Thanks.